"OPERATION CONDOR"

On 9/28/76, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised as follows:

"Operation Condor" is the code name for the collection, exchange and storage of intelligence data concerning so-called "Leftists", Communists and Marxists, which was recently established between cooperating intelligence services in South America in order to eliminate Marxist terrorist activities in the area. In addition, "Operation Condor" provides for joint operations against terrorist targets in member countries of "Operation Condor." Chile is the center for "Operation Condor" and in addition to Chile, its members include Argentina, Bolivia, Paraguay and Uruguay. Brazil also has tentatively agreed to supply intelligence input for "Operation Condor." Members of "Operation Condor" showing the most enthusiasm to date have been Argentina, Uruguay and Chile. The latter three countries have engaged in joint operations, primarily in Argentina, against the terrorist target. During the week of September 20, 1976, the [director of the Argentine Army Intelligence Service traveled to Santiago, Chile, to consult with his Chilean counterparts] with respect to "Operation Condor." (U)

A third and most secret phase of "Operation Condor" involves the formation of special teams from member countries who are to travel anywhere in the world to non-member countries to carry out sanctions up to assassination against terrorists or supporters of terrorist organizations from "Operation Condor" member countries. For example, should a terrorist or a supporter of a terrorist organization from a member country of "Operation Condor" be located in a European country, a special team from

RE: "OPERATION CONDOR"

"Operation Condor" would be dispatched to locate and surveil the target. When the location and surveillance operation has terminated, a second team from "Operation Condor" would be dispatched to carry out the actual sanction against the target. Special teams would be issued false documentation from member countries of "Operation Condor" and may be composed exclusively of individuals from one member nation of "Operation Condor", or may be composed of a mixed group from various "Operation Condor" member nations. Two European countries, specifically mentioned for possible operations under the third phase of "Operation Condor", were France and Portugal.

A special team has been organized [in Argentina made up of members of the Argentine Army Intelligence Service and the State Secretariat for Information (SIDE)] which are being prepared for possible future action under the third phase of "Operation Condor." (U)
